

BIG SANDY NEWS.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 1893.

BIG SANDY IMPROVEMENT.

An Erroneous Report Corrected.

Good fine salt at $1.00 per barrel at Gunnells.

Only 95c for barrel salt at Borders & Stewart's.

John M. Berry, of Huntington, was here this week.

Purity is the only reliable flour. Made to order for Sullivan, Wilson & Co.

Mr. Geo. E. Chapman, of Huntington, was here this week attending court.

Mr. Jos. Long, of Madisonville, Ky., was here a few days ago on a visit to friends.

If you want good fine salt, call on Gunnell and get it for one dollar ($1.00) per barrel.

Please remember that D. M. Jones the photographer has now located in Louisa.

As we often have occasion to remark: "Mr. J. C. Thomas, of Irongton, spent Sunday in Louisa."

Miss Ada Borders returned Saturday from an extended visit to relatives in central Kentucky.

A daughter was born last week to Dr. Harry Wood and wife, at Buffalo, N.Y. "Lucy Rowe Wood."

There is an opening in the News office for a bright, industrious boy who desires to learn the printer's trade.

Mr. J. M. G. Watt came up from Cincinnati Saturday to pay a short visit to old friends. He returned Monday.

J. C. Layne has moved into the building on the corner of his lot. A. J. Loar will soon move into the residence vacated by Layne.

If you want your husband to buy you a new seal-skin sack, buy some pure Buckwheat flour & Maple Syrup at Sullivan, Wilson & Co.

Mrs. Dr. Hudgins, of Portsmouth, O., arrived here Wednesday on her way to the bedside of her father Mr. F. R. Moore, who is not expected to recover.

If you want photos or tin types, you can get them at Jones photograph gallery any time. It makes no difference about the kind of weather.

The Bank of Louisa declared a dividend of four per cent Monday. Half of the amount was paid in cash and the remainder was credited to the surplus fund.

The steamer Lexington was sold at public auction in Ashland a few days ago for $1,015. Lew Davis being the highest bidder. She will be repaired and put in the Ashland-Louisia trade soon.

The ice in the river was moved by a rise on Tuesday, and on Wednesday night it gorged at Rockville and soon became stationary at this place. The gorge now extends several miles up the river.

The family of David Bartram assembled at his home near Fort Gay on the occasion of his anniversary one day last week and celebrated the day in a very pleasant manner. In addition the pleasure afforded by a reunion of the entire family in a big dinner was spread and much enjoyed.

The district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will convene in Louisa, at the M. E. Church South, on the evening of January 7th. Following is an outline of the exercises.

SATURDAY, 6:30 p.m.
By Choir.
Lecture, President.
Rev. M. W. Hiner.
By Choir.
Address of Welcome.
Response, Mrs. W. D. Roffe.
Music, Miss Lida G. Moore.
Bible, Miss Betta Geiger.
Call, Recording Secretary.
Rules of Order, Music.
Reports of Delegates, Music.
R. T. Burns.
Doxology.
SUNDAY, 11 A. M.
Missionary Sermon, By Rev. M. W. Hiner.
Lecture, Sunday afternoon, ladies will hold a meeting at the church the nature of which will be announced later. We expect to have with us Mrs. J. M. Carter, of Boston, W. Va., our Conference president of Juvenile work; Miss Betta Geiger, of Ashland, the secretary of the Chatterbox district; Miss Lida G. Moore, our Conference Corresponding Secretary; Miss Mary Mason, one of our missionaries in Mexico, and other workers. Day night with talks on their various departments of mission work. We hope that all the friends of whatever denomination will be encouraged by their meetings.

Final salt at Borders & Stewart's, only 95c per barrel.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Last Year's Record.

Below is a recapitulation of the more important events of 1892, of strictly local nature and interest: Jan. 1st, wife of Rev. H. G. Reynolds died at Fort Gay. Louisa Oil and Gas Well Company organized.
3d, Ben Thomas' house burned.
8th, coal train wrecked at the second crossing. Loss, $5,000.
20th, Mr. Chas. Crutcher and Miss Jean Reynolds marry.
28th, infant child of J. B. Peters died.
28th, tree-felling completed on new O. & E. S. railroad route.
Feb. 5, wreck at Walbridge, several passengers bruised.
14th, N. & W. R. R. Engineer's office removed from Louisa to 22nd.
25th, Col. Norbury retired from management of O. & E. S. R. R.
23d, Big Sandy News began as all-home-print paper.
24th, Dr. Harry Wood married Miss Gipsy Northrup.
25th, telegram announcing death of Dr. Will Sweetnam, a native of Louisa.
27th, Post Henry T. Stanton lectured.
March 2d, daughter born to J. F. F. Ratcliff and wife.
7th, Wm. Dawson, aged 78, died in Fort Gay.
8th, Mrs. T. J. Davis died.
11th, small child of Joshua Endicott died.
18th, deepest snow of several seasons.
April 1st, John Crabtree killed by a train at this place.
4th, Bank of Louisa moved into its new building.
9th, Jas. Short, Sr., died of paralysis.
17th, a son born to J. F. Kendrick. Mrs. H. W. Ferguson died.
19th, Rob. Crabtree killed by Dick Lyons.
20th, Jas. Mead killed by Wm. Davis on Nat's creek.
26th, double wedding at South Methodist church: O. S. Horton and Miss Mary Burns; A. M. Hughes and Miss Jennie Burgess. Odd Fellows' anniversary celebration.
27th, marriage of Jas. L. Hackworth and Miss Florida Eves.
May 16th, Passenger train put on the O. & E. S.
17th, foundation of G. W. Gunnell's business house begun.
21st, S. B. Justice died suddenly.
26th, regular trains began using the new route to Peach Orchard.
30th, Harm and Marcolffy drayed out of town for unbecoming conduct toward ladies.
June 1st, Mrs. Elizabeth Shannon, aged 73, died.
3d, daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gayhart.
9th, Roland Sammons, aged 70 years, fell dead.
14th, a son born to Rev. C. H. Williamson and wife.
16th, C. J. Wilson and Miss Nannie Endicott married.
17th, Grant Wright drowned while bathing.
21st, 15-months-old child of Minard Thompson died.
22, Hugh Sparks killed by Nathan Gambill, on Blaine.
27, a girl born to David Ward.
July 4th, celebration of the day.
A daughter born to Frank Hartran and wife.
6th, marriage of E. Z. Wilson to Miss Lida McHenry.
13th, Nicholas McGuire, aged 84, died.
19th, infant of Dr. Murray died.
25th, born to O. P. Wellman and wife a boy.
Aug. 5th, County Sunday School Convention at Fallsburg.
8th, teachers' institute.
27th, Democratic Primary election. A. J. Wilson nominated for Sheriff and Al. Carter for Circuit Clerk.
28th, work on Two mile change in railroad begun.
Sept. 1st, G. W. Castle appointed Prosecuting Attorney, vice S. G. Kinney, resigned.
2nd, 8th anniversary of the Big Sandy News.
6th, Thos. Judd, a conductor, fatally crushed by a train. State meeting Mutual Protection Society at Louisa.
10th, Rube Lunford killed by Thos. France.
19th, Public Schools opened.
21st, Annual Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church assembled.
24th, Sump Smith killed John Chaffin.
Oct. 10th, Public schools suspended on account of Prof. Gayhart resigning to accept a government position.
Oct. 15, Miss Mollie Wilson died.
Nov. 2d, Mrs. J. F. Dixon died.
9th, Col. L. T. Moor died.
14th, Louisa schools re-opened with C. B. Stuart principal.
16th, T. S. McClure and Miss Mary Davis married.
20th, daughter born to L. T. McClure and wife.
23, Ace Spence killed his cousin Aaron Spence, at Peach Orchard.

Dec. 4th, a daughter born to C. M. Crutcher and wife.
10th, Dr. Berry's drug store burned.
14th, Public schools indefinitely closed, owing to illness of principal.
19th, burial of Felix Garred, who died in Missouri on the 16th.
21st, Melroy Copley married to Miss Laura Endicott. Marriage of Dr. Z. A. Thompson to Miss Corilla Burgess.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

The comparatively infrequent occurrence of a double wedding at a church was witnessed at Chatterbox on Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. Amos Tyree and Miss Laura Endicott, and Mr. William Tyree and Miss Corilla Burgess were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place in the M. E. Church at Chatterbox, and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Layne. The wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, best men, and a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was well attended. The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a dark suit. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses, and the best men wore dark suits. The ceremony was a very pleasant one, and was well attended. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.

G. W. GUNNELL.

This week and all next week we will be invoicing our entire stock. Measuring the dress goods, throwing on the Bargain Counter all short pieces and remnants, marking down goods that have not sold as fast as they should. What is true of the Dress Goods Department, is also true of all the other lines.

Ladies' and Misses' Cloaks, n 's and Boys' Clothing. Suits, Overcoats & Pants, Ladies', Misses' & Child's Shoes.

A GREAT STOCK Of Remnants in 7c Calicoes Will be sold at 50c per yard. While It Lasts.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET YOUR MONEY BACK.

BUT THE GREATEST BARGAIN OF ALL IS IN LADIES FINE SHOES!

We have a table stacked full of Ladies' Fine Shoes of Kid and Dongola, Common Sense and Opera Shoes that have been bringing us $2.50 and $3.75. We haven't all sizes, only 3s, 3s½, 4s and 4s½, and for this reason you may take your choice for $1.50 per pair.

WE CAN GIVE YOU A Bargain in anything you want. You will find it greatly to your advantage if you will visit our store this week and next.

G. W. GUNNELL.

You can save money by buying your groceries of Sullivan, Wilson & Co.

Sneak Thief.

A young man named Owen Adkins, aged about 23 years, has been living at Wm. Shortridge's upon Catt Creek, Lawrence County, Kentucky. Came to my store on the 12th Nov., 1892, and ordered a can of peaches and sugar and crackers. He ate them, stepped outside the door and left without paying his small bill of 20c. Any person meeting with him and knowing of the above sneaking act, can certainly size him up. J. J. DALTON.

We are the only firm in town that handles Purity and Bridal Wreath Flour. Best in the market. S. W. & Co.

Come and see the Picture on exhibition at Sullivan, Wilson & Co.

Spencer is the only one that handles Pure Pennsylvania Buckwheat Flour. He is now the sole agent for the same in Louisa. Can furnish any dealer at low figures. Call and get prices. D. C. SPENCER.

We have just received a lot of pure Buckwheat flour direct from the mill. Only four cents per pound. SULLIVAN, WILSON & CO.

THE 30 SYLPHS, OVERLANDS, RUDGES

SYLPH CYCLES RUN EASY. A revolution in bicycle design. No complicated machinery. A perfect safety bicycle. How this special bicycle can be ridden by anyone. STOP! STOP! STOP! The only bicycle that will not fall over.

ROUSE, HAZARD & CO., V235 ST., PEORIA, ILL.

Get your salt at Borders & Stewart's only 95c per barrel.

Try Hunkee tea, at Frank Yates', $1.00 per pound.

Ladies who want the highest grade of face powder should try Freeman's. For sale at Conley's.

20 barrels of Purity flour received this week. Sullivan, Wilson & Co. sole agents.

The only absolutely pure Maple Syrup in town, is at Frank Yates, as attested by his customers. Also pure Buckwheat flour.

We can sell you flour from $4.50 to $5.50 per barrel, but recommend Purity. S. W. & Co.

Carpets at Borders & Stewart's ranging in price from 25 cents a yard, to 1.30.

Salt is selling at $1.25 all over town, except at Gunnells, where you can buy a No. 1 fine salt at $1.00 per barrel.

C. M. TURLEY. JAY A. VINSON. TURLEY & VINSON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Logan, W. Va. All kinds of legal business promptly attended to. COLLECTIONS A SPECIALTY.

HARDWARE, SADDLERY, Furniture, Queensware

AT SNYDER BROS.

LOUISA, KENTUCKY.

